Meals Included: Breakfast , Farewell Dinner

Today is steeped in aviation history as we explore central Newfoundland's deep ties to the skies. Visit the North Atlantic Aviation Museum, where exhibits chronicle Gander's crucial role in early transatlantic flight. Experience a powerful, beyond-words tour that tells the story of how this small town became a place of refuge during the events of 9/11. We'll also stop at the Silent Witness Memorial, which honours the 256 lives lost in the 1985 Arrow Air crash. From there, we journey back to St. John's for our final evening together, marked by a memorable farewell dinner.

Overnight: Best Western Plus

Day 11 – Fri Jun 12 Homeward bound - Farewell to the Rock - Newfoundland in our Hearts

Meals Included:

Over the past 11 days, we've circled Newfoundland, exploring its rugged coastlines, charming communities, and deep-rooted history. From standing at the edge of North America in St. John's to cruising past towering icebergs in Twillingate, walking Viking trails in L'Anse aux Meadows, and uncovering stories of courage and kindness in Gander, we've experienced the spirit of "The Rock" in every step.

As we board our flight home, we carry with us the unforgettable landscapes, heartfelt traditions, and warm Newfoundland hospitality that will remain in our thoughts — and hearts — long after we leave.
