Our route winds through the rugged Cassiar Mountains, crossing the majestic Continental Divide—a natural milestone on the northern journey. Sweeping views of Teslin Lake and Marsh Lake reveal shimmering waters framed by untamed wilderness. We pause at Nisutlin Trading Post & Lodge for an included picnic lunch before continuing toward Whitehorse. A stop at Miles Canyon showcases a dramatic basalt gorge carved by the Yukon River, perfect for unforgettable photos. In the afternoon, we visit the historic SS Klondike Sternwheeler, a window into the riverboat era that shaped the Yukon.

Overnight: Best Western Gold Rush Inn

Day 5 – Thurs Jun 11 Whitehorse, BC to Skagway, AK & return – Skagway and the White Pass Wonders

Meals Included: Breakfast

Our route delivers a first taste of Alaska, traveling from Whitehorse to Skagway—a Gold Rush town brimming with frontier charm and Klondike history. Time to explore reveals streets rich in heritage before we board the legendary White Pass & Yukon Route Railway. This engineering marvel winds 28 miles through soaring mountain passes, canyons, and tunnels on a fully narrated ride to Fraser, BC. Rejoining our coach, we return toward Whitehorse with a stop at the dramatic Yukon Suspension Bridge, where sweeping views of the wild river make for an unforgettable finale.

Overnight: Best Western Gold Rush Inn

Day 6 – Fri Jun 12 Whitehorse, YT to Dawson City, YT – Gold Rush Dreams and Klondike Nights

Meals Included: Breakfast , Lunch

Our route follows the legendary Klondike Highway, tracing the path once taken by hopeful gold seekers. A scenic picnic lunch amid the Yukon wilderness adds to the day's charm before we continue toward our destination—historic Dawson City. By late afternoon, we settle into our accommodations in this storied frontier town. The evening brings excitement at Diamond Tooth Gertie's Gambling Hall, complete with lively cancan shows and period flair, bringing the Gold Rush era to life in unforgettable fashion.

Overnight: The Downtown A Coast Hotel

Day 7 – Sat Jun 13 Dawson City, YK, to Tok, AK – Gold, high Roads, with Alaska Horizons
Meals Included: Breakfast

A guided tour of Dawson City visits iconic sites such as the Discovery Claim, where the Gold Rush began, and the massive Dredge No. 4, a preserved mining relic. Panoramic views from the Midnight Dome offer a sweeping perspective of the Yukon River and Dawson's historic landscape. Boarding a ferry across the Yukon River, our route follows the stunning Top of the World Highway, a high-altitude journey with endless vistas. Crossing into Alaska, we pass the quirky outpost of Chicken before arriving in Tok for the night.

Overnight: Youngs Motel

Day 8 – Sun Jun 14 TOK, AK – Fairbanks, AK – Miles End to the Golden Heart
Meals Included: Breakfast , Dinner

Journey deeper into Alaska, stopping at Delta Junction—the official end of the Alaska Highway. Here, we celebrate with a commemorative Alaska Highway Certificate, a proud keepsake of the journey. Continuing to North Pole, Alaska, we discover Christmas cheer in every season. By afternoon, we arrive in Fairbanks, the Golden Heart City. This evening features dinner at the Alaska Salmon Bake in historic Pioneer Park, followed by the lively Golden Heart Revue at the Palace Theatre, a musical comedy honoring the people, culture, and history of Alaska's interior.

Overnight: Bear Lodge

Day 9 – Mon Jun 15 Fairbanks, AK – Paddle-Wheelers, Pilots, Pipelines and Pioneers
Meals Included: Breakfast , Dinner

The day begins aboard the Riverboat Discovery, featuring the Chena Village Living Museum, a bush pilot demonstration beside the boat, and a visit to Trail Breaker Kennels to meet Alaska's sled dogs. A guided walking tour of an Athabaskan village offers an authentic glimpse of frontier life. Our afternoon includes a guided tour of Fairbanks exploring the Golden Heart City, including a visit to the Trans-Alaska Pipeline, an 800-mile engineering marvel that has shaped Alaska's economy and history.

Overnight: Bear Lodge

Day 10 – Tue Jun 16 Fairbanks, AK – Anchorage, AK – Denali Views and Coastal Anchorage
Meals Included: Breakfast , Boxed Lunch

Our route travels the picturesque Parks Highway, offering sweeping views of Denali National Park and towering Denali, North America's tallest peak at 20,310 feet. A stop at Denali Viewpoint South provides the perfect opportunity to admire the magnificent landscape and capture incredible photos. An included picnic lunch along the way adds to the relaxed pace. By afternoon, we arrive in Anchorage, with time to unwind and explore the vibrant energy of Alaska's largest city.

Overnight: Crowne Plaza Anchorage

Day 11 – Wed Jun 17 Prince William Sound – Glaciers, Fjords, and a Tunnel through Time
Meals Included: Breakfast , Lunch

Our route follows the scenic Seward Highway to Whittier, traveling through the Anton Anderson Memorial Tunnel—the 2.5-mile marvel that is North America's longest shared rail-and-highway tunnel. Boarding a high-speed catamaran, we set out on the unforgettable 26 Glacier Cruise. Calm waters reveal glacier-carved fjords, pristine wilderness, and one of the world's largest concentrations of tidewater glaciers. College Fjord and Harriman Fjord showcase massive ice flows cascading from the mountains to the sea. Watch for dramatic calving as thunderous ice breaks into the Sound. A freshly prepared lunch is included on board as we enjoy the incredible views. Returning to Anchorage, we pass through the historic tunnel once more.

Overnight: Crowne Plaza Anchorage

Day 12 – Thurs Jun 18 Anchorage, AK, – Tok, AK – From the Bearded One to the Borderlands
Meals Included: Breakfast , Lunch

A bearded visit in Palmer, AK takes us to the Musk Ox Farm, home to the "Oomingmak" or "Bearded One," whose soft qiviut wool is among the finest in the world. Traveling through the fertile Matanuska Valley, our route follows the spectacular Glenn Highway toward Glennallen. An included lunch at the Caribou Grill offers a delicious taste of Alaska hospitality. The road then unfolds beside the towering Wrangell–St. Elias National Park, where immense peaks and endless wilderness create a truly unforgettable panorama before we continue on to Tok for the night.

Overnight: Youngs Motel

Day 13 – Fri Jun 19 Tok, AK – Whitehorse, YT – Completing the Legendary Alaska Highway Meals Included: Breakfast

A scenic return to Canada takes us back into the Yukon at the Alcan border, continuing along our last uncharted portion of the iconic Alaska Highway. The serene expanse of Kluane Lake and the snow-capped peaks of the St. Elias Range offer picture-perfect scenery at every turn. Passing through Haines Junction, we enjoy more of the Yukon's rugged beauty before arriving in Whitehorse. With this final stretch, we complete the legendary Alaska Highway—traveled in unforgettable stages since the beginning of our adventure.

Day 14 – Sat Jun 20 Whitehorse, YT – Watson Lake, YT – Familiar Roads, Fresh Views Meals Included: Breakfast

Our journey takes us back onto familiar roads, though from a new angle the scenery feels entirely refreshed. We pause at Teslin Lake, where the sweeping Nisutlin Bay Bridge frames one of the Alaska Highway's most picturesque views. Continuing on over the Continental Divide offers another chance to mark this natural milestone. Each curve and crest reveals a new perspective on the Yukon's vast wilderness. By day's end, we arrive in Watson Lake and settle into the same welcoming hotel from our northbound journey, bringing a sense of comfort and continuity to our adventure.

Overnight: Andreas Hotel

Day 15 – Sun Jun 21 Watson Lake, YT – Fort Nelson, BC – Farewell Yukon Hello BC's Resource Rich Northeast Meals Included: Breakfast

With one last look at the wild horizons of the Yukon, we cross the border back into British Columbia. The return along the Alaska Highway offers fresh perspectives on familiar wonders—glimpses of turquoise Muncho Lake, the alpine heights of Summit Pass, and endless boreal forest. As we enter BC's northeast, resource-rich lands reflect the region's vital oil, gas, and forestry heritage. Wildlife sightings are always possible along this rugged corridor. By evening, we arrive in Fort Nelson, where the day winds down in the same comfortable hotel that welcomed us on our northbound journey.

Overnight: Lakeview Inn and Suites

Day 16 – Mon Jun 22 Fort Nelson, AB – Grande Prairie, AB – Alberta Bound and Fond Farewells Meals Included: Breakfast , Farewell Dinner

Our route heads south through BC's energetic northeast, a region driven by vital oil, gas, and hydroelectric industries. Passing through Fort St. John—aptly named The Energetic City—we see a landscape shaped by both rugged wilderness and resource development that fuels much of the province. The journey continues past Pink Mountain and Dawson Creek, returning to Mile 0 of the legendary Alaska Highway. Crossing back into Alberta, we arrive in Grande Prairie and check into the final hotel of our journey. This evening, we gather for a farewell dinner, sharing stories and memories with newfound friends.

Overnight: Pomeroy Hotel and Conference Centre Grande Prairie

Day 17 – Tue Jun 23 Grande Prairie, AB to Home – The Final Frontier Homeward with Miles of Smiles Meals Included: Breakfast

Our final frontier takes us through Alberta's oil country, passing the towns of Valleyview, Fox Creek, Whitecourt, and Mayerthorpe as we make our way to Edmonton. Here, we bid farewell to some fellow travelers before continuing south toward Calgary. Along the way, memories of towering mountains, wild coastlines, historic towns, and endless northern skies remind us of the extraordinary adventure we've shared. Your bucket list journey to Alaska concludes where it began—now enriched with countless photos, lasting friendships, and miles of smiles.
