

Simply Saskatchewan

Sep 16, 2026 to Sep 20, 2026

Endless skies, golden fields, and fertile farmland welcome travellers to the Land of Living Skies — where agriculture and community shape everyday life. From Saskatoon's scenic riverbanks and historic neighbourhoods to its role as Saskatchewan's agricultural heart, the province's story unfolds through innovation, heritage, and unmistakable prairie pride.

Country hospitality comes alive at Champêtre County with a spirited sheriff's welcome, wagon rides across the prairie landscape, prairie humour, and the unforgettable pitchfork fondue feast. Polkafest at the legendary Danceland Ballroom brings generations together on its world-famous horsehair dance floor for an evening of pure prairie celebration. Each experience captures the warmth, resilience, and close-knit spirit that define rural Saskatchewan.

Two nights along the North Saskatchewan River in Saskatoon blend urban energy with prairie charm and cultural discovery. Two rejuvenating nights at Manitou Springs Resort & Mineral Spa offer a restorative pause, where mineral-rich waters soothe and wide-open skies stretch endlessly overhead. A captivating sheepdog demonstration paired with a Prairie Grazer picnic showcases the skill, innovation, and deep agricultural traditions that continue to shape life on the land.

This tour promises warm memories of productive farmland, welcoming communities, vibrant celebrations, and life lived at a gentler pace — a lasting and heartfelt reminder of Saskatchewan's enduring agricultural roots and authentic prairie way of life.

Day 1 – Wed Sep 16 *Pickup location to Saskatoon – Prairie Skies & Paris of the Prairies

Meals Included: None

Departing Red Deer, the route heads north with pickups along the way before circling Edmonton and turning east toward the Land of Living Skies. As the miles roll by, Saskatchewan's signature scenery unfolds – golden fall fields, expansive skies, and quiet prairie towns that reflect the province's deep agricultural roots and unhurried pace of life. Arrival in Saskatoon comes in the late afternoon, allowing time to take in riverbank views, tree-lined paths, and historic neighbourhoods along the South Saskatchewan River. The city's blend of prairie character and urban energy is reflected in its familiar landmarks, earning Saskatoon its reputation as the Paris of the Prairies and setting a welcoming tone for the days ahead. Check in to the Downtown Park Town Hotel on the banks of the South Saskatchewan River

Overnight: Park Town Hotel

Day 2 – Thurs Sep 17 *Saskatoon to Manitou Beach – River Stories & Prairie Hospitality

Meals Included: Breakfast , Pitchfork Fondue

A guided introduction to Saskatoon begins with a leisurely walk along the riverbank, exploring the past, present, and future of the Meewasin Valley. Insightful interpretation highlights how the South Saskatchewan River and its banks have long been woven into the story of the city and its people. The experience continues with a guided driving tour showcasing Saskatoon's role as the agricultural hub of Saskatchewan, where prairie innovation and productivity shape the province's economy.

Departing Saskatoon, local charm takes centre stage at Champêtre County. Prairie humour and genuine hospitality set the tone with a playful sheriff's welcome, followed by a relaxing horse drawn hay ride, lost corral maze, laughter, and lively entertainment. The evening features the signature Steak Pitchfork Fondue dinner – a true Saskatchewan favourite – before gathering around a prairie campfire to wind down under open skies.

Later in the evening, arrival at Manitou Springs Resort & Mineral Spa offers the chance to relax in naturally occurring mineral waters so rich in minerals that floating comes effortlessly – a memorable and uniquely Saskatchewan way to end the day.

Overnight: Manitou Springs Resort

Day 3 – Fri Sep 18 *Mineral Waters & Polka Nights

Meals Included: Breakfast , Dinner

A relaxed day unfolds at Manitou Springs Resort & Mineral Spa, where naturally occurring mineral waters and peaceful surroundings invite rest and renewal. Time is yours to enjoy the spa amenities, soak in the mineral pools, or simply take in the quiet beauty of Saskatchewan's southern plains. The slower pace offers the perfect chance to recharge and ease into prairie time.

Energy builds in the evening with a visit to Polkafest at the legendary Danceland Ballroom. A hot buffet dinner sets the stage before the music begins, offering fuel for those eager to dance the night away on the famous horsehair floor. Others may prefer to sit back, enjoy the lively polka rhythms, and visit with fellow travellers and new friends – all part of this uniquely Saskatchewan experience.

Overnight: Manitou Springs Resort

Day 4 – Sat Sep 19 *Springs, Pastures & Prairie Masterpieces

Meals Included: Breakfast , Lunch

A final opportunity to enjoy the mineral waters at Manitou Springs Resort offers a gentle start to the day before departing for Saskatoon. Rested and refreshed, the journey north leads back into Saskatchewan's agricultural heartland.

An engaging sheepdog demonstration showcases the remarkable partnership between shepherd and dog, offering a firsthand look at the skill, instinct, and precision behind modern livestock management. The experience is paired with a Prairie Grazer picnic lunch, featuring seasonal, locally sourced ingredients thoughtfully presented in curated picnic baskets. Camp chairs, blankets, umbrellas, and ponchos ensure comfort as the presentation unfolds – rain or shine.

Following the demonstration, local shepherd Jared joins the group for an informal question-and-answer session, sharing insight into daily operations, rural life, and the realities of working the prairie land. It's an authentic Saskatchewan experience that brings agriculture to life in a meaningful and memorable way.

The afternoon is yours to explore. Step back in time at the Western Development Museum's Boomtown, or immerse yourself in contemporary creativity with a guided visit to Remai Modern Art Gallery. The evening concludes with a final night at the Park Town Hotel – a chance to relax, reflect, and celebrate the experiences shared across Saskatchewan's wide-open landscapes

Day 5 - Sun Sep 20 Prairie Reflections & Homeward Roads

Meals Included: Breakfast

The journey turns north and west as the route retraces familiar prairie highways back toward Alberta. With Saskatchewan's wide skies and open landscapes fading into the distance, the drive offers time for reflection on the rhythms of prairie life and the resilience of the communities that call it home.

Memories of quiet towns, welcoming faces, and simpler moments linger, often sparking reflections of our own small-town beginnings and a time when life moved at a gentler pace. Arrival back in Alberta brings the tour to a close, carrying prairie stories and connections that stay long after the road ends.
